DEATH OF MRS. A. W. WHITTINGSTALL

The death occurred on Sunday, at St. Julian's, Simeon-street, of Mrs. Lucy Maria WHITTINGSTALL, wife of Mr. A. W. WHITTINGSTALL, who for many years was a guard on the local coaches "Tally-ho" and "Victoria." She was a daughter of the late Sergt SALTER, of the old Newport Borough Police, and had 12 children, seven daughters and five sons, two of whom were killed in the last war.

On Tuesday evening the remains were taken into Holy trinity Church, where the Rev. L. N. St. ALPHONSE officiated at Vespers of the Dead. On Wednesday there was a requiem Mass, and the burial office was held in the afternoon.

The mourners were Mr. A. W. WHITTINGSTALL (husband), Mr. and Mrs. W.

WHITTINGSTALL (son and daughter-in-law), Mesdames J. WILLIAMS, E. SCOTT, C. KEEPING, and W. READ (daughters), KELLEWAY, and MORRIS. The hymns were "Jesu, Lover of my Soul," and "They whose course on earth is o'er."
There were 32 floral tributes.
