

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 26th August 1972

Salvationist. - Mrs. Blanche WILLIAMS, of 2, Station Street, a popular member of the local Salvation Army Corps, died at the Royal I.W. County Hospital on Tuesday. Her husband died in 1920, and she leaves a son, Captain Charles WILLIAMS, Salvation Army corps officer at Basingstoke. For many years, until she retired when the new station was opened in 1967, she was employed at the police station for domestic duties.

The funeral service is at the Salvation Army citadel on Tuesday.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Kate MacDonell