ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 21st February 1953 page 8

The Late Mr. G. C. WOLFE.- The funeral took place on Thursday week at St. James's Church of Mr. George Charles WOLFE, aged 73, of 12 Arthur Street, who died at his home after a long illness, on Monday week. He was born at Southsea, and came to the Island as a youth. After serving with the I.W. Rifles during the first world war and being wounded in France, he joined the outdoor staff of Ryde Corporation. He retired about eight years ago. Mr. WOLFE was a member of the Oddfellows' local branch and of Ryde Social Club. He leaves one son, his wife having died 17 years ago.

The service was conducted by the incumbent (the Rev. E. E. M. GREEN), and the mourners were Mr. R. WOLFE (son), Mr. A. WOLFE (brother), Mr. and Mrs. R. DYER, Miss M. WOLFE, and Miss V. WOLFE (nephew and nieces), Miss N. PRICE (cousin), and Miss M. JONES. Mesdames A., A. J., and N. WOLFE and Miss J. POCOCK (sisters-in-law), were unable to attend. Fellow employees and friends were also present. The interment was at Ryde Cemetery. Among the wreaths was one from the outdoor staff and members of Ryde branch of the National Union of General and Municipal Workers.
