LADY RESIDENT'S DEATH

We regret to announce the death which occurred somewhat suddenly on Tuesday 27th, of Miss Caroline WOODCOCK, of Lochiel-villas, West-street, where she had resided for the past 29 years with her sister, Miss Helen WOODCOCK. The two sisters were practically never separated and the surviving sister naturally feels her loss very keenly. Their father Mr. Richard WOODCOCK, who died in Jersey in 1870, was formerly connected with a well-known firm of bankers in Coventry, his wife who subsequently died at Southampton, being interred in the same grave as her husband.

The deceased who was 71 years of age, and greatly respected in All Saints' parish, suffered from cancer, and had been laid up seven weeks, her medical attendant being Dr. PRIDMORE, and she passed away very peacefully, though suddenly.

The funeral took place at the Cemetery on Friday, being preceded by a service at All Saints', conducted by the Vicar (the Rev. Hugh le FLEMING), who also officiated at the graveside. The obsequies were of a simple character, the mourners comprising Miss Helen WOODCOCK (sister), Mr. H. J. ADNAMS (brother-in-law), and Mr. and Mrs. Edward VAUX (nephew and wife). There were several floral tokens.

Mr. H. TAYLOR was the undertaker.
