

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 3rd February 1966

Miss A. WORTHINGTON-DAMBRILL. – Miss Amy WORTHINGTON-DAMBRILL, of Belvedere Street, died last Saturday at the Marine Hotel, aged 87. Daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William DAMBRILL, of Cowes, she came to Ryde on the death of her father just before the 1914-18 war. During the First World War she was a British Red Cross Society nurse, and in the last war served in the Women's Voluntary Service. For several years Miss WORTHINGTON-DAMBRILL was chairman of the Ryde branch of the I.W. Conservative Association women's section and was at one time vice-chairman of the Island organisation. Miss WORTHINGTON-DAMBRILL who leaves no family was also a member of the Electrical Association for Women.

A service at Holy Trinity Parish church last Wednesday conducted by the Vicar, the Rev. John SHAW preceded interment at Binstead Cemetery. Mourners were: Mr. and Mr. J. PREBBLE, Miss V PREBBLE, Dr and Mrs. Firman EDWARDS, Mrs. KING. Representatives of the I.W. Conservative Association and the Electrical Association for Women were also present.

Messrs. H.V. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements.
