

We regret to announce the death of MR W H WALLIS, who for a long time took an active part in the municipal life of the borough, of which he was once an Alderman. He retired some years since in consequence of advancing years and ill-health. The deceased gentleman was a man of artistic ability and tastes.