

MARRIAGE: 10th January 1844 at St. George's Church, Arreton, IW.
Alleyne C. YARD. Full/age/ Bachelor. (father: Thomas YARD)
& Henrietta SANDERS. Full/age. Spinster. (father: Samuel SANDERS)

1851 CENSUS: HO107/1664. folio 194. page 32.
Address: Buckland Grange, Spencer-road, Ryde, Newchurch, IW.

Alleyne YARD. Head. Mar. 40. West India Proprietor. Barbadoes (British)
Henrietta YARD. Wife. Mar. 39. London.
Sophia SANDERS. Sister-in-law. U. 32. London.
Henrietta E. YARD. Dau. 6. Isle of Wight.
Alleyne YARD. Son. 4. Isle of Wight.
Mina EBERBACH. Servant. U. 25. Germany.
Jane DENHAM. Servant. U. 29. Isle of Wight.
Ellen DENHAM. Servant. U. 19. Isle of Wight.
John SMITH. Servant. U. 25. Huntingdon.
Isabella REILLY. Servant. U. 26. Berkshire.
Maria ROLFE. Servant. U. 21. Isle of Wight.
William JACKMAN. Servant. U. 18. Isle of Wight.

1859 WHITE's DIRECTORY of Hampshire & Isle of Wight - page 657
YARD Mrs. Hntta, Spencer-road, Ryde, IW.

1878 WHITE's DIRECTORY of Hampshire & Isle of Wight - page 484
YARD Mrs. Henrietta, Buckland Grange, Spencer-road, Ryde, IW.

1881 CENSUS: RG11/1178. folio 39. page 30.
Address: Buckland Grange, Spencer-road, Ryde, IW.

Henrietta YARD. Head. Widow. 67.
Justine HUCCHAR. Serv. Un. 64. Ladys Maid (Dom). Paris, France (Foreign)
Eliza HEATH. Serv. Un. 24. Cook (Dom). Bitterne, Hants.
Mary HYDE. Serv. Un. 22. Parlourmaid (Dom). Welham, Leicestershire.
Harriett EXELL. Serv. Un. 18. Housemaid (Dom). London, Middx.

1891 CENSUS: RG12/890. folio 40. page 36.
Address: 4 Sydney Terrace, St. Thomas-street, Ryde, IW.

Henrietta YARD. Head. Widow. 78. Living on Her Own Means. London.
Justine HUCHARD. Serv. S. 62. Paris.
Alice WAVELL. Serv. S. 35. Shorwell, IW.
Beatrice DOWDEN. Serv. S. 28. Newport, IW.

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 30th January 1892

DEATH OF MRS. YARD

Our obituary this week contains the name of a very much respected lady, Mrs. Alleyne YARD. For many years the deceased lady resided at Buckland Grange, but for some time past she has been living at No. 4 Sydney Terrace, where she died. Mrs. YARD had the reputation of being one of the most kindly and sympathetic of our residents. No case deserving of relief ever appealed to her in vain. Quiet and unostentatious in her style of living, she delighted in being the almoner of her own bounty, as long as her health permitted her to do so. So unobtrusive and so kindly was her charity that very few, even of her most intimate friends, knew about it. As an instance of her generosity, we may state that only last year, when she heard that the Ryde Relief Society was in want of blankets, she at once sent a donation of £20, and doubled her subscription. No doubt many of the poor in the town have benefited during the present winter by that generous action.

The funeral took place at Binstead Cemetery, on Thursday morning. The coffin, which was of polished oak with brass mountings, was conveyed in an open catafalque to the cemetery, where the funeral service was performed by the Rev. G. V. GARLAND (Rector of Binstead), and the Rev. R. HOSGOOD.

The chief mourners were Mr. and Mrs. HATHWAY, Major YARD, Mr. BAINES, and the servants. Splendid wreaths and crosses were sent by Lady ALEXANDER, Lady DALY, and Miss Lily DALY, Miss DICKSON, Mrs. John DICKSON, Mr. George DICKSON, Mrs. BAINES, and Miss BAINES, Mr. BAINES, Major YARD, Mrs. HATHWAY, Mrs. BURTON, Mrs. FETHERSTONHAUGH, Mrs. ARBUTHNOT, Mrs. FORTESCUE, Mrs. Glynn OGLANDER, Mrs. GLYNN, Miss LEES, Mrs. LEEDS, Mrs. ASHWORTH, Mrs. BRETT and servants.
