ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 14th February 1891

DEATH OF MR. EBENEZER YOUNG

We have to record the death on the 5th inst., of Mr. Ebenezer YOUNG, of East Hill Swanmore, at the age of 84. The deceased was one of our oldest tradesmen, and was the founder of the well-known restaurant in Union-street, which is carried on by his son, the deceased having retired for many years. A quiet and unassuming man, Mr. YOUNG never took much part in public affairs, but was much respected by those who knew him.

The funeral took place on Monday last at Ryde Cemetery, the Vicar, (the Rev. Canon Poole) officiating. The mourners were Mr. and Mrs. F. W. YOUNG, Mr. W. YOUNG (of Sandown), the Misses YOUNG, Mr. J. Osmond BROOK, Mr. S. STONE (of Winchester), Mr. Henry PACK and Miss Nelly PACK. The coffin, of polished oak, was covered with a number of beautiful wreaths sent by friends and relatives.
