

WHITTINGTON GROUP

William Edward WHITTINGTON died in April 1916, aged 27. His home was in Weeks Rd. Ryde. He worked as a gardener for Colonel Cradock at The Lawn, Spencer Rd. Ryde, but decided to join up. Four weeks later, due to ill health, he died in a hospital in Wiltshire. He was married to Ethel Lydia and at his funeral her wreath said, "From His Broken Hearted Wife."

COMMONWEALTH WAR GRAVE

Find out more from:

www.rshg.org.uk

www.isle-of-wight-memorials.org.uk (Ryde Town Great War Memorial with link to Commonwealth War Grave Commission record.)