ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 22nd September 1956

Death of Mrs. A. M. COOPER.---The death occurred on Friday week at her home of Mrs. Alice Mary COOPER, aged 85, of Glendale, Well Street. Mrs. COOPER had suffered poor health in recent years, but made a remarkable recovery at Easter, when she spent a month in a nursing home. A native of Chardstock, Dorset, she came to the Island as a child after the death of her father, and lived with he aunt, the late Mrs. E. PAUL, at Myrtle Cottage, Freshwater. In 1899 she married Mr. James COOPER, at Ryde, and a year later they moved to Glendale. Her husband, who died three years ago, was master baker, and after being employed for many years by the late Ald. E. T. MINTER, J.P., took over the business at 85 High Street. Mrs. COOPER, who has seven great grandchildren, is survived by her two daughters.

The funeral took place on Wednesday at All Saint' Church, Freshwater, and the Rector (Canon R. P. DODD, R.D.) officiated. The mourners were Miss J. COOPER (daughter), Mrs. N. A. FLAVELL (daughter, representing Brig. E. W. C. FLAVELL, son-in-law, Sq.-Ldr. E. J. G. FLAVELL, grandson, in Australia, Capt. J. S. C. FLAVELL, grandson in Cyprus, and Mrs. Mary BULL, grand-daughter), Mrs. Alma FOX (niece, representing Mrs. E. PHILLIPS, sister, Mrs. W. T. WAIGHT and Mrs. MacFARLANE, nieces, and Mr. L. PHILLIPS, nephew), Mr. and Mrs. J. EAMES (nephew and niece), and Mrs. G. and Miss J. HARRIS.

The interment was in her husband's grave at Freshwater.
