RETIRED RAILWAYMAN'S DEATH

Mr. Walter David HERBERT, aged 70, who died suddenly at his home, Malvern, St. John's Avenue, on Tuesday, retired only three years ago, after completing 53 years' service on the Island Railways. A lifelong resident, he started work at the St. John's-Road locomotive works as a boy, being then employed by the old I.W. Railway Company. He was at the depot for the whole of his working life, and retired with the position of charge-hand fitter. He was an enthusiastic worker for the Southern Railway Orphanage, Woking. During the 1914-18 war he served with the I.W. Rifles, and during the last war was a fire warden at the Royal I.W. County Hospital. He served the St. John's Parochial Church Council, was a past governor of the Coronation (Ryde) Lodge of the Loyal Order of Moose, and a member of the local Railway Social Club. He leaves a widow, two daughters and two step-daughters.

The funeral service took place at St. John's Church on Thursday, and cremation took place at Porchester yesterday (Friday).

Messrs. H.V. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements.
