ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 2nd April 1938

Death of Mr. J. A. K. MOXEY.- Many old residents will learn with regret of the death of Mr. J.A. K. MOXEY, who until he retired in 1914 was a very popular local district superintendent of the Prudential Assurance Society. He died at his residence, 32 Wadham-road, North End, Portsmouth, on Friday week at the age of 83, and was buried at Milton Cemetery on Monday. While living in Ryde he was initiated as a member of the East Medina Lodge of Freemasons and in due course became its Worshipful Master. He also joined the Royal Arch and Mark Lodges. Among the mourners at the funeral were : Mr. Charles LANGDON, P.P.G.D.C. (representing the East Medina Lodge), Messrs. R. CLARKE, Johnstone GEORGE, G. RAYNER, H. SHAWYER, and E. SIMES. The widow was unable to attend.
