Found Dead In Her Kitchen
MRS. M. BARRETT

A post mortem examination upon Mrs. Mildred BARRETT, of 42 Weeks-Road, Ryde, who died suddenly at her home last week, revealed that death was through natural causes. She was found dead in her kitchen last Wednesday by the neighbour, Mrs. J. CHIVERTON, who was in the habit of visiting her daily.

Aged 78 years, Mrs. BARRETT was the widow of the late Mr. W.G. BARRETT, who died in 1948. She leaves three stepsons and a stepdaughter.

The funeral service took place at Ryde Cemetery Chapel on Saturday when the Ryde Methodist Minister, the Rev. Cledwyn WOOD, officiated. Among the family mourners were: Mr. R. GALLOP, brother; Mrs. B. HOOKEY, sister; Mr. R. BARRETT, stepson; Mrs. H. ROBERTS, stepdaughter; Mrs. JACKSON, niece; and Mr. B. JAMES, brother-in-law. Several friends and relatives also attended. Mr. F. BARRETT and Mr. H. BARRETT, stepsons, were unable to attend.

Interment was at Ryde Cemetery, and funeral arrangements were by Messrs. H.V. TAYLOR & Sons, of Ryde.
