

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 28th January 1899

OBITUARY. - A much-loved and respected member of the Baptist Church, of George Street, passed away in the person of Miss Ada DALLIMORE, who died at her residence, St. John's Road, on the 23rd inst, after a long illness.

The funeral took place on Thursday last, when the coffin (which was of polished elm with brass mountings) was taken to the Baptist church, George Street, the officiating minister being the pastor, the Rev. Bruce PEARSON. In the presence of a large and sympathetic congregation, the first portion of a simple, but deeply impressive service took place.

Amongst the mourners present were: Mrs DALLIMORE, Mr and Mrs Walter DALLIMORE, Mr and Mrs William DALLIMORE, Mr Ernest DALLIMORE, Mr Alfred DALLIMORE, Mr Sidney DALLIMORE, Miss GILLINGHAM, Mr and Mrs Arthur DALLIMORE, John WHEELER, Mr GRACE, Mr LIVESAY, Mr MEEBAN, Mr TUTTE, Mr SAVAGE, Mr HOLMES. At the conclusion of the first portion of the service the funeral cortege wended its way to the cemetery, where the Pastor solemnly but briefly committed the body to the earth.

There were a number of beautiful wreaths and crosses from - A. HAYDEN and B. WILSON; "With loving sympathy from friends at St. CLAIR", Alice BURT, Mr and Mrs A. TUTTE, Mr and Mrs F.L. TUTTE; Mr and Mrs BROOKS, Mr Mrs and Miss JONES; Mr and Mrs GRACE. A wreath of camellias, azaleas, Roman hyacinths and ferns - With the sincere love of all the members of the George Street Baptist Christian Endeavour to our dear sister, who wore the white flower of a blameless life, and many other wreaths &co, from the bereaved family
