OBITUARY.- On Tuesday Mr. W. GROWCOCK, for a long time gardener to Mr. H. MEARES, passed away with unexpected suddenness. He had been ill, but was thought to be on the road to convalescence when the fatal result ensued.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 27th January 1894

FORESTER'S FUNERAL.- The remains of the late Mr. W. GROWCOCK were interred at the Cemetery on Sunday afternoon. Some 90 members of the Court Astraea A.O.F. attended, including Bro. J. W. TAYLOR (chief ranger), Bro. WHITE (secretary), Bro. W. MORRIS, P.C.R., Bro. G. HARRIS (junior Woodward), Bro. R. MORRIS (sub-secretary). The Rev. J. G. HOOTEN officiated. Floral tributes were sent from Miss and Master MEARES, the servants at Millfield, and others. Mr. BARTON was the undertaker.

We are asked to say that the Forester's service was not read at the grave owing to there being another funeral at the same time.
