SUDDEN DEATH

On Saturday evening Thomas HUGHES, a labourer, living at 9 St John's Place complained to a friend named Ingotoli FILIP of feeling ill. The latter asked him to go and have a drink, and while following him down the passage leading from his house HUGHES fell down. Dr PRIDMORE was at once summoned, and on his arrival found that death had taken place. Deceased, who was 74 years of age, had been attended for the past 18 months by Dr. KENNEDY for heart disease, and as he was prepared to give a certificate that death was due to this cause, the Coroner on having the facts communicated to him decided that an inquest was unnecessary.
