

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Sat 19th March 1887

AN INTERESTING SALE.---A sale of various articles belonging to the late Admiral KATON took place at Messrs. WALLIS, RIDDETT and DOWN's Auction Rooms, on Thursday and Friday last, and there was a large attendance on both days. Lot 214, a book of etchings, by REMBRANDT, fetched £16; Lot 217, engravings by MORLAND, £6.6s. An oil painting attributed to ZUCCARELLI, fetched 32 guineas, and a small painting on panel, "Interior of a Spanish Cathedral" (artist unknown), 17 guineas. Lot 362, a pair of small engravings by BARTOLOZZI, fetched 6½ guineas, and another pair, by the same artist, 4½ guineas. There was a brisk competition for the collection of old china, as well as for the silver plate, some of which realized as much as 27s. an ounce.

Researched by
Ann Barrett