

Hampshire Telegraph and Sussex Chronicle Saturday 12 November 1892, Issue 5803

Funeral of Sergeant-Instructor MACKIE – The late Sergeant-Inspector MACKIE was buried with military honours at the Ryde Cemetery on Saturday. The body was carried by the deceased's comrades, Sergt.-Major BEADLE and Sergeant-Instructors LONGMUIR, MCGILL, and EVANS being pall-bearers. The band played the "Dead March" in "Soul" as the body was taken from the Mortuary to the Cemetery. The Rev C R SHARPE officiated. Amongst those present were Major FLUX, Captain ELLERY, and Captain C SWEETMAN, Q.M.S.HOWDEN and Colour-Sergeant MORGAN, of the Commissariat Corps, ex-Sergeant BRANDISH and Mr COOMBES, late of the Seaforth Highlanders, ex Sergeant-Major WILLIAMS and ex-Quartermaster-Sergeant WATERWORTH, old comrades of the deceased, Sergeant-Major BARBER, and several members of the Isle of Wight Troop of Yeomanry. Wreaths were sent by the Ryde, Newport, and Cowes detachments of the corps to which deceased was attached.