

1901 CENSUS: RG13/1024. Folio 67. Page 46.

Address: Isle of Wight Infirmary, Ryde IW.

Abigail A. STRANGE. Serv. S. 62. Nurse at Infirmary. Blunsdon, Wilts.

(plus 1 House Surgeon, 2 Matrons, 11 Nurses, 1 Dispenser, 5 Domestic, 48 Patients.)

In 1911 Abigail Ann STRANGE (73) was living on her own at 41 Arthur-street, Ryde. She was listed as a Retired Nurse, birthplace Broad Blunsden, Wilts.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 15th May 1926

THE LATE SISTER STRANGE. – On Friday week the funeral took place of Sister STRANGE. The Revs. F.F. HAWKEY and A. TRIGGS officiated. Among those present were Miss BRACKENBURY (matron) and several nurses of the County Hospital. The mourners were Mrs. and Miss STRANGE (niece and great-niece), Mrs. C. ARNOLD, Mrs. JONES (Brading), and Mr. F. RIGBY.

Among the wreaths placed on the grave were two inscribed “From the medical staff of the County Hospital, as a mark of their esteem and respect,” and “All at the County Hospital who knew and admired Sister STRANGE.”

Researched & typed by

Ann Barrett

Val Minns