

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 8th May 1920

FUNERAL OF OLD INHABITANT

The funeral took place at the Cemetery, of Mrs. Elizabeth TAYLOR, of Monkton-street, who had been a resident in the town for 48 years, and for many years an active member of Park-road Baptist Chapel. She had been in failing health for nearly a year and passed away at the age of 76. The mourners were Mr. George James TAYLOR (husband), Messrs. Harry and Fred CLUETT (nephews), Mrs. Alice CLUETT (niece), Mrs. Emily CLUETT (niece), Mrs. Emma CLARKE (nurse). There were also present Mr. and Mrs. FUTCHER, Miss Jessie CASSELL, Mrs. BARTON, Mr. and Mrs. LAVARS, Mrs. MILLER, Mr. J. C. BEAZLEY, the Misses DENHAM, Mr. H. HIBBERD, Mrs. COOKE, Miss Nellie HONEYBOURNE, Mr. V. BONNER, and Mrs. and Miss COOK. The Rev. Alfred DEDAMESS (former pastor of the Park-road Church) officiated.

Messrs. WHEELER Bros were the undertakers.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Margaret Truckel