

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 26th March 1970

Mrs. A. M. DENHAM. – The death occurred last Wednesday of Mrs. Agnes Mary DENHAM, of 19 Millward Road. She was the widow of Mr. George DENHAM who will be remembered by the older generation as a dairyman at Monkton Street. Her only son was lost at sea off Crete in 1941 whilst serving with the R.N.V.R. She was a regular worshipper at St. Michael's Church and for many years a member of the Mothers' Union.

The Rev. Martin CATON officiated at the funeral service which took place at St. Michael's on Monday. Family mourners were: Miss B. K. TAYLOR, sister; Mrs. G. DENHAM, sister-in-law; Mrs. J. BEARD, Mrs. W. MILES, nieces; Mr. and Mrs. J. SCOVELL, nephew and niece and Miss R. SCOVELL, great niece. Interment was in the family grave at Ryde Cemetery. Among the floral tributes was one from St. Michael's M.U.

Messrs. H. V. TAYLOR & Son made the funeral arrangements.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Margaret Truckel