ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Sat 31st January 1953

Death of Mrs. H. A. HILLS.---Mrs Henrietta Annie Hills, aged 87, widow of Mr. George H. HILLS, of Bemerton, Market Street, died at the Royal I.W. County Hospital on Sunday. A native of Shropshire, she spent her childhood at Bonchurch, and had lived here since her marriage. She was one of the oldest members of the George Street Congregational Church, and was a member of the Darby and Joan Club and Afternoon Townswomen's Guild. She leaves a daughter, her only son, George, being killed at Gallipoli in the first world war, while serving with the I.W. Rifles.

The Rev. G. J. NELSON officiated at the funeral at the Congregational Church on Thursday, and Mrs. K. INGRAM (organist) accompanied the singing of "The Lord's my shepherd." The mourners were Mrs. SWIFT (daughter), Mr. S. SWIFT (grandson), Mrs. N. SWIFT, Mrs. SHOTTER, and Mrs. N. PATERSON.

Church representatives attending included Messrs. F. E. E. SEARLE, J.P., T.C., (choirmaster and deacon) and E. HOSKING (deacon), Mrs. W. ATTRILL (choir), Mrs. W. R. PINCHARD (working party), and Mesdames E. WEALTHY and N. COLLIER. The Darby and Joan Club was represented by Miss D. K. MITCHELL (leader) and Mesdames M. KEMP, M. JAMES, ASHFIELD, ADAMSON, and SEAGER, and Miss PLUMBLEY, and the Afternoon Townswomen's Guild by Mesdames H. W. O. WEEKS, J.P., E.M. HAYLES, P. SHEPHERD, and W. R. COTTON.

The interment was at Ryde Cemetery. The floral tributes included those from the Congregational Church ministers, deacons and congregation, and the Darby and Joan Club.
