ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 23rd April 1892

By order of the Executrix of the late Mrs EDGELL and the late Miss WEBBER.
"HANLEY HOUSE," STRAND, RYDE.

MESSRS WALLIS, RIDDETT and DOWN have received instructions from the Executrix, to SELL by AUCTION, on the premises, on THURSDAY, May 5th, 1892, at 1 o'clock punctually, the

F U R N I T U R E

And other effects, including walnut drawing room furniture, comprising couches and easy chairs, card and occasional tables, carved high-backed chairs and six single chairs in tapestry, whatnots, a few water colour drawings and engravings, ornamental china and fancy articles, an old English clock in walnut case, by ABRAHAM, about 180 volumes of book, Brussels, tapestry and Kidderminster carpets, in good condition, oak hall table and pair of chairs, mantel glasses, mahogany chiffoniere, mahogany pedestal sideboard and dining table, rosewood Davenport, a few ounces of silver plate, a small assortment of plated articles, a decorated pine bed room suite, well-made mahogany and birch chests of drawers, washstands with marble tops and other bed room furniture, household linen, black and brass French and Arabian bedsteads, with bedding, an assortment of glass and china, the usual kitchen requisites, a two-light garden frame, garden seat, iron roller, and other effects.

May be viewed on the preceding day. Catalogues may be had of James CROWDY, Esq., Solicitor, Howard House, Arundel Street, Strand, London, W.C., and of the Auctioneers, Town Hall Chambers, Ryde.

The House to be Let, apply to the Auctioneers.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Margaret Truckel