

We regret to record the death of another old inhabitant, MR JOHN HARBOUR, of Monkton Street. The deceased was taken with some kind of fit on Tuesday, and lingered till Wednesday morning when he died. Mr Harbour was a member of the old Board of Commissioners for some years, and used to take a leading part in public affairs. Of late years he has, however, lived comparatively retired.