

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 15th November 1952

Former Hairdresser's Death.- The death occurred on Saturday of Mr. Charles Henry BOTTRILL, of 37 Player Street, Ryde, a former proprietor of a hairdressing business in the High Street for nearly 40 years. A native of Lutterworth, Leicester, Mr. BOTTRILL came to the Island about 50 years ago. He took an interest in all sports, and before coming to the Island played Rugby football in the County League. He was formerly the municipal bandmaster at Windermere. He leaves a widow.

The funeral took place at All Saints' Church, Ryde, on Wednesday, the Rev. P. L. VAUGHAN officiating. The mourners were Mrs. BOTTRILL (widow), Miss R. BOTTRILL (sister), Mr. L. BOTTRILL (brother), Mrs. L. BOTTRILL (sister-in-law), Messrs. H. BOTTRILL and G. BURLEY (nephews), and Miss K. BOTTRILL (niece).
