

SUDDEN DEATH

The death took place suddenly on Friday week of Mrs. Jane WHITE, wife of Mr. Harry James WHITE, of 14 Spencer-road. Mrs. WHITE was engaged in the kitchen early during the evening when she suddenly collapsed in front of her husband and members of the family without uttering a sound. Dr. Spencer CHURCHILL was summoned, but death had supervened before his arrival. Deceased, who was a native of Binstead, resided at Southsea before coming to live in the town about six years ago. She was 55 years of age. Deep sympathy is felt with the bereaved husband and family in their sad and unexpected loss. The facts were reported to the coroner, but as medical examination revealed the cause of death as heart failure an inquest was not deemed necessary.

The funeral took place at the Cemetery on Tuesday, the Rev. H. N. STUBBS, vicar of Holy Trinity, officiating. The chief mourners were Mr. H. J. WHITE (husband), Miss Connie WHITE and Miss Annie WHITE (daughters), Mr. Fred WHITE (son), Mrs. L. TIPPER and Mrs. RICKMAN (step-daughters), Messrs. F. and W. WHITE (brothers), Mr and Mrs. R. A. WHITE (step-son and daughter-in-law), Mr. P. MORRIS (brother-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. MILLER (brother-in-law and sister-in-law), Mr. Ralph WHITE (step-brother), Miss OATES, Binstead, Mrs. G., Miss, and Mr. C. ATTRILL (cousins), Messrs. A. and W. WHITE and Mr. J. COLLEYPRIEST (brothers-in-law), and Messrs. O. ATKEY and L. TIPPER. There were a large number of floral tributes of love and affection.

Mr. C. LANGDON was the undertaker.
