

YOUNG WOMAN'S SUDDEN DEATH

The death occurred with tragic suddenness at 9 Vine-terrace, York-avenue, East Cowes, on Wednesday of Miss Elsie Gertrude YOUNG, aged 21, who lived with her parents at 114 High-street, Ryde. The deceased who was in domestic service with Mrs. WALTERS of Rothsay, Melville-street, Ryde, went by the 6pm bus to East Cowes to visit her sweetheart. She had just arrived at his home, and was in the kitchen talking when she was taken ill and collapsed in her fiancé's arms, Dr. W.H. JERVIS, who was sent for, pronounced life extinct. She had recently complained of feeling unwell, but had not been medically attended. A post-mortem was ordered by the deputy coroner.

Researched by
Ann Barrett