

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 19th May 1962

Naval Veteran's Death - Mr. Henry William CHAPMAN, aged 74, died at his home, 35 Argyll Street, on Sunday. He had served with the Royal Navy for more than 30 years, including the periods of both world wars. Mr. CHAPMAN was twice married, and his second wife died in 1960.

The funeral service at All Saints' Parish Church on Thursday was conducted by the Rev. A. J. PEARMAN (vicar of St. John's) and Mr. W. REED was organist. The mourners were Mrs. R. POINTER (daughter), Mr. and Mrs. R. DYER, Mrs. A. F. WICKENS, Mrs. G. SHEPPARD, and Miss E. DEW (step-children), Mr. M. DYER (grandson), Mr. R. GREGORY (nephew) and Mrs. E. LYON (niece). Floral tributes included those from neighbours in Argyll place and Argyll Street.

Messrs. H. V. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements.
