

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 3rd February 1955

Death Notice:

JACKSON. - On Sunday, January 30, at Ryde Nursing Home, William James Scott JACKSON, aged 64.

---

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 3rd February 1955

Acknowledgement:

JACKSON. - Mrs. JACKSON wishes to thank Dr. SIM, the Matron and nurses of Ryde Nursing Home, and neighbours for their kind sympathy and attention.

---

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 10th February 1955

Mr. W J. Scott JACKSON. – The funeral of Mr. William James Scott JACKSON, a retired railway-man, whose death we reported, took place at All Saints Parish Church on Wednesday week. The service was conducted by the Asst. Curate, the Rev. H. WILDE, Family mourners were Mr. and Mrs. R. J. S. JACKSON, and Lt.-Comdr. R. M. S. JACKSON, R.N., sons and daughters-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. P. G. S. JACKSON, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. S. JACKSON, and Messrs. A. F. S. and A. E. S. JACKSON, brothers and sisters-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. W. G. TILL and Mrs. F. DUNFORD, brother-in-law and sisters; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. GALE, brother-in-law and sister-in-law; Messrs. A. J. M. GALE and R. M. GALE, nephews. Representatives of British Railways present included Mr. W. E. MASON of Newport, also representing Mr. G. H. R. GARDENER, Assistant for the Island and Mr. A. G. SMITH, Ryde stationmaster. Wreaths were received on behalf of British Railways staff, who were also present at the funeral, and from friends and neighbours. The interment took place at Ryde Cemetery.

Messrs. H. V. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements.

---

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
David Harris
Margaret Truckel