ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 16th December 1972

The Late Mr. O. BALDWIN. – A funeral service took place on Thursday at the Cemetery Church for Mr. Oswald BALDWIN (90), of 41 Park Road. Born in Norfolk, Mr. BALDWIN moved to the Island in 1900. He served as one of the first driver-conductors for the Creeth Motor Bus Service operating between Ryde and Seaview. He later worked as a butcher's assistant. He was connected with the Brethren of Monkton Street Gospel Hall. Mr. BALDWIN's nephew, Mr. R. A. CREETH, of Portsmouth, a member of the Brethren, officiated, assisted by Mr. R. BIDDLECOMBE and Mr. L. W. BLAKE.

Mourners included Mr. and Mrs. C. J. BALDWIN (son and daughter-in-law), the Misses Mabel, Agnes and Adela CREETH and Mr. R. A. CREETH (nieces and and nephew), and Mr. Andrew BALDWIN and Miss Jennifer BALDWIN (grandchildren).

Messrs. H. V. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements.
