

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 17th February 1940

Sudden Death – On Monday Mr. George William BLOCK, aged 70, was found dead in bed at 164 High-street, where he carried on a newsagent's and tobacconist's business. He had lived alone since the death of his wife. At the funeral Canon MOXON officiated at the cemetery on Thursday. The mourners were Mr. H. COLLYER (representing Messrs. J. ELDRIDGE, solicitors) and Miss SPRAGG (executrix).

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 17th February 1940

GEORGE WILLIAM BLOCK Deceased.

ALL Persons having any CLAIMS against the Estate of the late George William BLOCK, of 163 High Street, Ryde, I.W., Newsagent and Tobacconist (who died on the 12th day of February 1940) are requested to send particulars thereof forthwith to the undersigned.

JAMES ELDRIDGE AND SONS
17 Lind Street,
Ryde, I.W.,
Solicitors for the Executrix

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Janette Gregson