

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 27th September 1919

DEATH OF PRIVATE BURNETT.—We regret to announce the death of Pte. J. A. BURNETT (late R.M.L.I.), which occurred at his home, 3 Edward Street, somewhat suddenly on Monday morning. Previous to joining the Service, Mr. BURNETT had been in business as an upholsterer, but on being demobilised had taken over the management of the furnishing department at Messrs. Hill and Co's. He leaves a widow and one little girl.

The funeral took place on (Thursday).
