

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 28th June 1941

The Late Miss DIMMICK.- Many co-workers met in the Newport-street Methodist Church on Thursday to pay a last tribute to Miss Emily Ethel May DIMMICK, whose death at the age of 42 is much deplored.

The Rev. E. S. WILLIAMSON spoke in grateful terms of the quiet and steadfast influence of her life. The mourners were Mrs. GRIFFIN (sister), Mrs. H. CASS, of London, and Miss D. GRIFFIN (nieces), Mr. W. H. and Pte. G. H. GRIFFIN (nephews), Mrs. DIMMICK (aunt), Mrs. PRIDDLE and Mr. R. DIMMICK (cousins), Mrs. G. H. GRIFFIN, and Miss E. WARD. Mrs. DOWNER (sister), of London, was unable to attend. The Corporation were represented by Ald. A. F. WRIGHT and Messrs. A. E. SMITH and W. A. CHRISTY. Mrs. PEAKE represented Mr. HUGHES (manager) and directors of Messrs. PACK and Co., in whose employ deceased had been, and the staff were represented by Miss PELLEW, Miss RUFFELL and Mrs. BILES, and Miss BLAKE, a former member. Messrs. PACK and Co. and staff sent flowers.

Reserched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Kate MacDonell