

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 11th May 1901

FUNERAL OF MR. G. L. HANDLEY. - The remains of the late Mr. George Lawler HANDLEY, who founded the well-known business at Southsea some 50 years ago, were interred at the Cemetery on Thursday. Deceased, who was 83 years of age, passed away on the 7th instant at Monkton-street. The principal mourners were Mr. HANDLEY (son), Mrs. HANDLEY (daughter-in-law), the Misses HANDLEY (granddaughters), Mr. Douglas CAWS (son-in-law), and Mr. Arthur CAWS. The body was enclosed in a polished oak coffin, with brass furniture. There were no flowers, by request. The religious observances were conducted by the friends and relatives, deceased belonging to the Plymouth Brethren.

Mr. J. HANSFORD was the undertaker.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Margaret Truckel