

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 5th October 1967

Mr. G. H. HUNNYBUN.- The funeral of Mr. George Henry HUNNYBUN, aged 69, of 6 Southfield Gardens, who died last Tuesday, took place at the Salvation Army Citadel on Friday. Interment followed at Ryde Cemetery. Mourners were: Mrs. R. HUNNYBUN, widow; Mr. D. HUNNYBUN, son; Mrs. E. HUNNYBUN, sister; Mr. and Mrs. J. NEWBERY, Mr. and Mrs. H. READ, Mr. and Mrs. R. WENDES, Mr. and Mrs. R. SALTER, Mr. and Mrs. G. TONKIN, Mr. V. COLLEYPRIEST also representing Mrs. V. COLLEYPRIEST, daughters and sons-in-law; Mr. K. NEWBERY, grandson; Mr. and Mrs. E. CALVERT, sister-in-law and brother-in-law and Mrs. F. AMBLER, friend.

Mr. HUNNYBUN was born at Newport, and served in the Royal Artillery during both wars, rising to the rank of sergeant. He worked on farms at Northwood, Havenstreet and Wootton, and was employed by the Ryde Borough Council before retiring nine years ago through ill-health. He was a former verger of Northwood Parish Church for nine years, and held a similar post at St. Michael's and All Angels' Church, Swanmore. He was a former secretary of Northwood Football Club, and in more recent years performed the same role for Binstead F.C. A keen gardener, he leaves a widow, one son and six daughters.

Messrs. H. V. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements.

ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 5th October 1967

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

HUNNYBUN.- Mrs. G. H. HUNNYBUN, David and the girls wish to thank Dr. PORTEOUS and the staff of Beatrice Ward, Royal I.W. County Hospital, for the care and attention given to Mr. G. H. HUNNYBUN. Also, relatives, friends and neighbours for letters, messages and beautiful flowers. Special thanks to Mrs. SHALES and Ronnie for their unfailing kindness throughout. Please accept this as the only intimation.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Kate MacDonell