

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 19th July 1952

Death Notice:

LEWIS (Emily) – July 10, 1952, at 110 Arthur Street, Ryde, widow of James H. LEWIS, aged 84. A good mother. – At rest.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 19th July 1952

Survived Husband by 17 Days. – The death occurred on Thursday week at her home at 110 Arthur Street of Mrs. Emily LEWIS, aged 84, widow of Mr. James H. LEWIS whom she survived by only 17 days. They celebrated their diamond wedding two years ago. Mrs. LEWIS, a native of Shaftesbury, Dorset, was a member of the Methodist Church in which her eldest son is a minister. There were five other children.

The funeral service took place on Saturday at the Methodist Church, conducted by the Rev. H. T. CAPEY, of Sandown. The mourners were the Rev. H. J. and Mrs. LEWIS (son and daughter-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. G. T. CORNEY (son-in-law and daughter), Mr. Percy LEWIS (son), Mrs. E. E. THORNE (daughter), and Mr. Terrence THORNE and Miss Jean THORNE (grandchildren). Mr. Peter THORNE could not attend through illness. The hymn “How sweet the Name of Jesus sounds” was accompanied on the organ by Mr. H. L. BRADING, J.P.

Messrs. H. W. TAYLOR and Son made the arrangements.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
David Harris
Margaret Truckel