

Death of Mrs. HENDY.- A much respected resident, particularly in the neighbourhood where she had lived during the last 40 years, Mrs. Agnes Emma HENDY passed away at her home, 107, St. John's-road on Sunday, aged 78. She was the widow of Mr. Albert HENDY, and for four years had borne a painful illness with great patience. After her marriage she assisted her husband at St. Lawrence Inn, St. Lawrence, and following his death she became the licensee until 1902. Following two years residence at Shanklin she came to Ryde and during the last war carried on the business of a general stores.

The funeral took place on Wednesday, the first part of the service being held at Holy Trinity Church. The mourners were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. HENDY (son and daughter-in-law), Mrs. J. COMETSON (grand daughter), Mr. Norman HENDY (grandson), Mr. L. HENDY (brother-in-law), Miss HENDY and Miss A. HENDY (nieces), Mr. A. CHICK (nephew), Mr. J. COMETSON, and Mrs. WARREN. The interment was at the Cemetery and there were many floral tributes.

Messrs. C. LANGDON and Son made the arrangements.

Mr. and Mrs. HENDY and family express sincere thanks to friends and neighbours for letters of sympathy and floral tributes, also Dr. BURRELL, Dr. SUTHERLAND, and Nurses ELLERY and THOMPSON for their kind and unremitting attention.
