

WOOTTON

Death of Mrs. B. R. HOLBROOK – A service at Ryde Parish Church on Monday, conducted by the Rev. R. H. GRANGER, R.D. (vicar), preceded the interment at Ryde Cemetery of Mrs. Jean Maureen HOLBROOK, aged 26, of Sea Mist, 12 Beechcroft Drive, who died suddenly at her home the previous Tuesday. Mrs. HOLBROOK had been employed since leaving school by Messrs. Duncan's drapers, of High Street, Ryde, and was married in September, 1962. Her husband, Mr. B. R. HOLBROOK, is a prison officer at Parkhurst.

The mourners included Mr. HOLBROOK (husband), Mrs. C. HALLETT (mother), Mr. and Mrs. A HALLETT (brother and sister-in-law), Mr. and Mrs. R. GUIE, Mr. and Mrs. D. RUGG, Mr. and Mrs. J. WAY and Mrs. D. HODGES (brothers-in-law and sisters), Mrs. H. HOLBROOK (mother-in-law), also representing Mr. S. HOLBROOK (father-in-law, who was unable to attend because of ill health). The governor and members of the staff at Parkhurst Prison attended and sent a floral tribute and the wreaths also included one from friends and neighbours of Beechcroft Drive.

---