Death of Mrs. H. GREGORY.- We regret to record the death of Mrs. Mary GREGORY, after several months of failing health, at 52, Daniel-street on Monday, at the age of 72. She was the wife of Mr. Henry GREGORY, a much respected townsman, and a daughter of the late Thomas PATTULO, a Crimean veteran, who settled here 70 years ago. Mrs. GREGORY was a member of the Women Legionists and of Wootton Women's Institute and had been a lifelong worshipper at Holy Trinity Church. Sincere sympathy is felt with her husband and son.

The funeral service was held in Holy Trinity Church on Thursday and was conducted by the Rev. L. N. ST ALPHONSE. The mourners were Mr. H. GREGORY (husband), Mr. C. GREGORY (son), Mr. and Mrs. H. C. F. LANDER, and Mrs. and Miss SIVIER. The interment was in the Cemetery and beautiful flowers covered the grave. The following is a list: With love to my dear wife from her sorrowing husband; with love to Mum from Claude, Nora, and Mary Pat; Aunt Sis, Harry, and Ella; Uncle Bob, Aunt Rose, and Norah; Cis, Marjorie, and Len; Henry, Lottie, Hugh, and Maude LANDER; Mrs. SIVIER and Phyllis; Mr. and Mrs. TRUCKELL and family; Wilf and Ida, Mr. WATSON and Gwen; Mrs. H. L. WHITE and Joyce; Mr. and Mrs. P. LANGDON; Florence LANGDON; Mrs. TUCKER and family; the neighbours of Daniel-street; officers, committee, and members of Wootton Bridge Women's Institute; and fiend Bud.

The arrangements were made by Messrs. C. LANGDON and Son.
