

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 23rd December 1899

DEATH OF MR THOMAS KENTFIELD.- Our obituary records the death of Mr. Thomas KENTFIELD at his residence, Surrey Street, Ryde. The deceased for many years carried on business as a printer in Newport, and was at one time a well known inhabitant of that town. He gave up his business to one of his sons and came to reside in Ryde some years ago. He claimed to be the oldest Freemason in the Isle of Wight, and had attained the advanced age of 79.

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Kate MacDonell