Death of Miss MILLER. – A resident for many years in Ratcliffe-avenue, Miss Dorothy Blanche MILLER, passed away at a local nursing home on Monday at the age of 59. She was a daughter of the late Sir Gordon MILLER, K.C.B., a former examiner of Indian accounts at the Admiralty. Her only brother, a bachelor, died last May. She took no active part in any phase of the borough's life and although she had two novels published and endeavoured to produce several inventions, she attained little success in either sphere.

The funeral took place at the Cemetery on Wednesday, the Rev. F.H. ROLPH (All Saints') officiating. There were no family mourners. Among those present were Major C.W. VINCENT, Miss JANAWAY, Mrs. WILLIAMS, Miss HILL, and the Misses FISHER.
