ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 23rd April 1892

DEATH OF A WELL-KNOWN INHABITANT. – We have to record the death, on Tuesday, of Mr. Joseph KEMP an old and well-known inhabitant of the town. Mr. KEMP belonged to a Ryde family, who catered very successfully in times gone by for the visitors in the provision of baths and bathing machines. Mr. KEMP built the well-known hotel on the Esplanade which bears his name, and also took a great interest in farming, &c. He had been in failing health for some time, and died, we understand, at the residence of his daughter, at Newport.
