

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 26th August 1893

SUDDEN DEATH.---We regret to record the sudden death of Mr Henry WHITE, baker, of High Street, Oakfield. It appears that on Tuesday evening Mr WHITE was in his shop, when he staggered and fell. Dr MACKENZIE was called, but within two hours of his seizure the poor man was dead. An inquest was not considered necessary, the medical man being able to certify as to the cause of death. The deceased was a man of upright conduct and character, and was very much respected in the district.
