

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 16th October 1937

FUNERAL of Mrs. BROOKS. – The funeral of Mrs. Annie BROOKS, of 3 Well-street, took place at the Cemetery on Monday. The service was conducted by Mrs. PERKIS and Mr. LILLEY, of Southsea, members of the Spiritualist Church. The hymn “Nearer, my God, to Thee” was sung in the chapel and “Abide with me” at the graveside. The mourners were Mr. and Mrs. E.J. SALTER (son-in-law and daughter), Miss Rene PULLEN (cousins), the Misses Isabel DANIELS and D. and R. SALTER, and P. CARTER, and Mesdames JONES, GOSLING, C. BUTT, WINTER, and A. COOMBES. The Mayor and Mayoress (Ald. And Mrs. DENNIS), Ald. A.F. WRIGHT, and members of the Spiritualist Church were present. The interment was in a grave lined with evergreens, and there were many choice wreaths.

-----

Researched & typed by
Ann Barrett
Val Minns