

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 31st January 1953

Death of Mrs. A. D. CRUMP. - Mrs Ada Decima CRUMP, whose death occurred on Saturday at her daughter's home, Harmur, Ratcliffe Avenue, after a long period of ill-health, had been a highly respected resident of many years' standing. She was the widow of Mr. Harry CRUMP, who died 13 years ago, and was manager of Messrs. GODFREY's music saloon and later for several years of the Theatre Royal. Her husband was also a past president of the Rotary Club and chairman of the Conservative Club. Mrs. CRUMP, who was 78, will be remembered for the assistance she gave the former amateur operatic society as wardrobe mistress over a period of many years. She leaves two daughters, which whom sympathy is felt.

The funeral took place at All Saints' Church on Tuesday, the Vicar (the Rev. R. H. BASSETT, R.D.) officiating. The family mourners were Mr. and Mrs. R. C. CRAGG and Mr. and Mrs. H. S. WOODNUTT (sons-in-law and daughters) and Miss Patricia WOODNUTT (grand-daughter). Burial took place at Ryde Cemetery.
