ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 30th December 1939

Sudden Death – Shortly before 10 o'clock on Wednesday morning, while talking to a friend at the junction of St. John's-road, Mr. James Charles REED, of 18 Victoria-crescent, Elmfield, collapsed and died. The police were informed and P.C. MAYBURY and Police War Reserve REED removed the body to the mortuary. Deceased, who was 62 years of age, was a carpenter by occupation. He leaves a widow, two sons, and a daughter, with whom much sympathy is felt in their sad and sudden bereavement. As Mr. REED had received medical attention recently, it was not considered necessary to hold an inquest.

ISLE OF WIGHT COUNTY PRESS Saturday 6th January 1940

The Late Mr. J. C. REED – The funeral service took place on Saturday at Garfield-road Methodist Church of Mr. James Charles REED, of Roslyn, Victoria-crescent, Elmfield, whose death occurred suddenly last week.

The Rev. A. G. Lloyd officiated. The mourners were Mrs. J. C. REED (widow), Messrs. A. J. and D. C. L. REED (sons), Mr. G. REED (brother), Mrs. RANN and Mrs. DICKERSON (sisters), Mr. and Mrs. NEWNHAM (brother-in-law and sister-in-law), and Mr. T. MEW (nephew).

Among other friends attending were members of the Rechabites and the Fire Brigade, of which deceased was formerly a member. There were numerous flowers, including those from the Fire Brigade.
