

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 3rd September 1910

Miss Ellen Glanville BOWLES for many years a resident in Ryde died on Thursday the 25th, at Wimbledon. The body was brought to Ryde early on Tuesday morning last for interment which took place in the afternoon, the first part of the service was taken at All Saints' Church, the burial taking place in the family grave in Ryde Cemetery. The coffin was of polished oak with heavy brass fittings and having a breast plate engraved as follows: Ellen Glanville BOWLES, died August 25th, 1910, aged 79 years.

The arrangements were in the hands of Messrs. PURNELL and PURNELL.

Researched by
Ann Barrett