ISLE OF WIGHT TIMES Thursday 26th January, 1955

DIED AFTER SIX WEEKS' ILLNESS
MRS. ALICE NORRIS

After an illness lasting six weeks, Mrs. Alice NORRIS, of The Hollies, Playstreet Lane, Ryde, died at her home on Sunday.

A native of the town, Mrs. NORRIS had been an invalid for nearly 10 years. She was 79. Her father was a foreman at a former cab and coachbuilding yard at John Street. Mrs. NORRIS had been married for 55 years, and attended services at All Saints' Parish Church. She leaves a widower, Mr. W. H. NORRIS and two daughters.

At the funeral service at All Saints' yesterday, Mrs. NORRIS's favourite hymn "Abide with me" was sung. The Rev. H. WILDE, Assistant Curate, officiated.

The mourners were Mr. W. H. NORRIS, widower; Miss L. NORRIS, daughter; and Mr. and Mrs. M. RIVERS, son-in-law and daughter; Mrs. K. SAWLEY, sister-in-law; and Mr. Jack MUNDELL. The interment was at Ryde Cemetery.
