DEATH OF SHIP'S COOK. – Many of his old shipmates heard with much regret of the death of Mr Chas. Edward WILLIAMS. Which occurred at the residence of his son and daughter in-law, Mr and Mrs Percy WILLIAMS, 23 Swanmore road, on Wednesday morning, aged 85. He had suffered from bronchitis for a considerable time, but his end came rather suddenly as he passed peacefully away in his sleep. He was a well-known ship's cook and was fond of relating his experience as chef on board the ex-German Emperor's yacht. He was a native of Ryde and in receipt of the old age pension. The deceased was of the regular sea-faring type and was much respected. He leaves a widow and grown-up family and grandchildren.
