

ISLE OF WIGHT OBSERVER Saturday 5th March 1870

DEATH OF AN OLD INHABITANT. – Our obituary of this day records the death of Patrick McCANN, who died after a very short illness on Saturday last at his residence, St Thomas's-square. For many years he travelled as china mender, but by perseverance and industry contrived some years ago to open the shop where he died, and in which he had done a flourishing business. Many gentlemen who came to visit Ryde would drop in to see if Patrick McCANN had anything rare in the china and curiosity line since their previous visit. His remains were interred in the Catholic portion of Ryde cemetery on Tuesday last.
